HALPIN'S CHARGES CAUSE TROUBLE

Makes Athletic Situation More Serious Than Ever-To Prove Allegations.

New York, Dec. 30,- The charges made by Mathew P. Halpin in his statement giving his side of his controversy with a umber of athletes who took part in the Olympic games at Athens, have made the situation more serious than ever. It is paid that Ray C. Ewry, the jumper, who is accused by Halpin of professionalism, said that Ray C. Ewry, the jumper, who is accused by Halpin of professionalism, will be called before the registration committee of the Amateur Athletic union to show cause why he should not be disqualified on Halpin's charges and that Halpin will be called upon to substantiate his charges. Halpin states that Ewry has taken part in contests in circuses and at meets not sanctioned by the Amateur Athletic clubs and there exems to be a disposition on the part of many to attempt to bring the controversy is the main topic of conversation around the athletic clubs and there seems to be a disposition on the part of many to attempt to bring the controversy to an end without further publicity, as it is recognized that the trouble alfready has reflected seriously on American athletics and athletes. Unless the controversy is anicably settled it is not improbable that the general committee of the London Olympic games will take the matter up. So far, it is stated, only the same been contributed to the fund to pay the expenses of an American team at the games next summer and the arguments among the athletes, dozens of who mare seeking the newspapers with their troubler will not aid in the collection of money for the team. In the meantime college men are watching the controversy closely and it is said that preparations are now under way to raise a fund and offer to the American committee a team composed of the strongest college athletes in the country for the London competitions.

TAD PICKS ATTELL.

Thinks the Little Jew Will Beat Owen Morgan Tomorrow.

Abe Attell, America's greatest little aghter, will do battle with Owen Morgan, the pride of England, on New Year's day afternoon in Frisco. Attell is picked by the best authorities in the country to win and will no doubt be a ten-to-six favorite when they enter the ring, writes Tad.

Tad.

Morgan is a grand little fighter. He is the greatest two-handed boy that has visited us in the past ten years. He is no "Bill" Squires, nor is he a "Gunner" Moir. He didn't come here with a troop of arumpeters announcing his arrival. He is a great favorite in the east and since he stopped Frankie Neil in the west, his stock has gone sky high. However, thut. Attell person is beyond dope, You can't figure Abe at all. He's simply a wizard. He has seen Morgan fight. He was in his brother Monte's corner, the night Owen gave him the trimming and Abe lost a diamond ring and a pin on the go. Ualike Jim Jeffries. EASY FOR DENTIST.

Casey, the third baseman of the Brooklyn club, is a dentist. He also is a good poker player.

Recently, when the Brooklyn team was on its way from St. Louis to Chicago, a little game was started in the smoker, and the party was made up of Pat Donovan. Casey, Pastorious and Ritter.

They had been playing only a short time when the secretary called Pat Donovan into the parlor car to talk over a matter of business, and when Pat was getting up from his seat he turned to Lamley and said: "Take my place until I return, Harry."

"Nothing doing at all," the heavy hitter repiled, as he carelessly inserted a toothpick in his mouth.

"Why not?" Donovan asked in surprise.

"Because." Harry replied, "I never sit in a game with a dentist."

"What do you mean?" Casey snorted, half rising from his chair and ready to scrap at the drop of a hat.

"Because." Lumley explained in the drawling way he has of speaking, "it is too easy for a dentist to draw and fill,"

GUN CLUB MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Salt Lake gun club was held last evening with a big attendance. Plans for the coming season of trap shooting were discussed and officers were elected for the year. CONTEST AT LAGOON TOMORROW AFTERNOON

Rube Smith and Charley Williams have now tapered off in their work, and reports from the training quarters indicate that the two welterweights will be in the best possible condition when they step into the ring at Lagoon tomorrow afternoon. During the past few days Smith has been at pains to assure his friends that he is in fine fettle and much stronger than he was on the eve of his contest with Mantell.

They will box for fifty per cent of the gross receipts of which seventy-five per cent will go to the winner and twenty-five per cent will go to the winner and twenty-five per cent to the loser. They will weigh in at 150 pounds at 12 o'clock, noon, the day of the contest. The bout will commence about 2 p. m. Tom Painter, of Wyomling, will referee the match.

Smith and Williams have both been holding open house at their training camps for the entertainment of the puglistic fans. Williams first attracted notice as a possible factor in his own division of the ring when he met and defeated Jack Christie, of this city.

Freddle West, the popular bicycle rider, and brother of Tommy West, the famous bantumweight will box Tom Fitzgerald, the late sparing partner of Fighting Dick Hyland, preliminary to the Smith-Williams contest. Fitzgerald wen the Olympic club tournament at San Francisco, Callfornia, two years ago.

SPRING MEETINGS.

New York. Dec. 30.—The greatest closing of stakes in the history of racing in America, will take place next Thursday, when, under the agreement between the three great clubs that control racing at Sheepshead Bay, Brighton Beach and Gravesend tracks, the entries for the big events of the year will be closed.

for the big events of the year will be closed.

A total of sixty stakes for the spring meetings and ten additional events for later meetings will be closed on that day, the total value of the stakes so closed being only a trifle under $200,000. The Brooklyn handicap, the Suburban and the Brighton handicap will be among the events closed. The values of the Brooklyn and the Suburban have been raised this year to $25,000, the value of the Brighton.

For Ten Rounds the Husky Fighters Battle Fiercely.

Milwaukee, Dec. 30 .- Hugo Kelly of Chiago and Billy Papke of Spring Valley, before the Badger Athletic club tonight. Both fighters started in hammer and tongs at the first tap of the gong, using right and left with frightful effect. Kelly knocked Papke down, the Spring Valley boy taking two of the count. The first round was easily Kelley's. The second seeming to have the first half, and Papk evening up matters in the last half. In the third round Papke drew blood from Kelly's right eyeand Kelly in turn jabbed l'apke's race, also drawing blood, the round ending an even break. The fourth round was easily Papke's, he having floored Kelly with a victous right to the body, following this up with rights and letts to the tace with good effect and drawing blood freely. The fifth round was fast and furious for the first half, both fighters easing up toward the end, Kelly seeming to have the better of the CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT. Coronado Golf for Men and Women Held in February.

With the usual contests and tournaments for the regular cups and prizes, golf, the all-year-round aport at Coronado, will maintain its wonted prominency in the 1968 season. The new links of the Country club have been put in model condition and now hoast the best "asphaltum greens" on the Pacific slope. Chief interest in Coronado golf naturally centers around the championship tournaments for men and women, to be held in February. Mrs. Herbert Mum, of New York, winner of the Is-inch challenge cup for winner in 1967, has written that she will make a try for a second victory. Other crack golfers are expected to be on hand when the tournaments open. The men's challenge cup was won last year by Mercill K. Waters, a former state championship of Vermont.

The schedule for 1908 is:

Big Fellow Wants to See Fighters Go

San Francisco, Dec. 30.—James J. Jef-fries, the champion heavyweight, who is ta referee the Moran-Attell contest for the featherweight championship, arrived here today from Los Angeles. Referring to the coming contest, he said: the coming contest, he said:
I hear that the Englishman is a tough.
If he is the man they say he is he ght to give Attel a hard rub, but I n't attempt to name the winner. It uldn't be the right thing to do."

effries vigorously denied the imputan published in the east that he was inseed to favor the Englishman. He led:

added:
"All I can say is that both fighters will look alike to me as they always have, if they clinch and hold on I will step in and break them, but so long as they keep fight their heads off, and the harder they fight the better I will be pleased, for try will mean less work for me. Moran need not have any fear about me butting. When I was fighting I liked to have my referee officiate,

JONES DON'T WANT IT.

New York, Dec. 30.—"Tad" Jones, the great Yale quarterback and baseball catcher, has refused two offers to enter professional baseball. The first one came in the shape of an invitation to join Lajoie's Cleveland team, and the second was an offer from Charies Murphy, of a place with the Chicago National League team, Jones will return to Yale next year and will be president of the Y. M. C. A. of the Sheffield Scientific school.

BRYAN TO OUTLINE VIEWS OF CAMPAIGN.

Lincoin, Neb., Dec. 30,—The list of speakers for the Democratic "dollar dinner" at Lincoln, Jan. 15, given in honor of William J. Bryan, was announced today, among them Gov. Charles N. Haskel of Oklahoma, Gov. N. E. Broward of Florida, former Senator Thomas M. Patterson of Colorado and William J. Bryan.

Considerable interest attaches to the speech of Mr. Bryan, as outlining his views of the coming campaign and his idea of what should be some of the planks of the Democratic national platform.

NO INTEREST IN ESTATE.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—Judge Barnes of the superior court held today that Mary McDonald, the first wife of Michael C. Doan's Kidney Pills not cnly remove uric acid, but cure the kidneys and then all danger from uric acid is ended. Here is a Sait Lake City testimony to prove it.

Mrs. A. D. McNichols, living at 328 West First South St., Sait Lake City, Utah, says: "Doan's Kidneys Pills were used in my family some five years ago and the sbest of result were received. When we first started using them, one of my children was annoyed with a weakness of the kidney. I procured a box of Doan's Kidneys Pills at F. J. Hills drug store and they cured the trouble. About two years ago my son suffered an attack of rheumatism but he took Doan's Kidney Pills and they very soon toned up his system and banished theat tack. I have also used them and think there is no better remedy on the market today. I have advised many people to try them and they have received satisfactory results from their use.
